VOLUME XIII

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 12, 1910.

NUMBER 49

Death of an Old Citizen.

The people of Columbia were surprised last Thursday when the news came that Mr. Geo. R. Bennett was dead. He had not been in the best of health for several years, being afflicted with rheumatism, but he was often seen in Columbia, being here two weeks ago. He died at the home of his nephew, Mr. Clay Bennett, and his friends here did not know of his serious illness. He was about seventy-three years old, was never married, and had been a quiet, peaceful citizen from young manhood to old age. A great many relatives and friends attended the last sad rites.

Money For Teachers.

Hundreds of teachers in the public schools of Kentucky will be pleased to know that checks for the salaries for the first two months of the present session have been mailed to the county superintendents and the teachers will be given their money on the next Saturday. The money will make a big hole in the treasury and will leave the school fund empty, but by the time there is to be another payment of school teachers Capt. Ed Farley, State Treasurer, expects to have enough money to pay off. This time about half a million dollars will be distributed to teachers.

The Adair Fiscal Court adjourned last Friday at noon after having been in session four and one-half days. Winfrey was appointed to make a settlement with the Sheriff, Mrs. Ermine Leach was awarded the keeping of the poor of the county at $1.50 per week per inmate, and Dr. S. P. Miller was elected jail and poor-house physician.

The millinery opening in the parlors of Mesdames Staples & Stults last Friday and Saturday was quite a success, many ladies calling during the two days. There were many beautiful hats on display and quite a number of sales made.

A Tribute to Rev. R. B. Grider.

The following notice is from the Todd County Times, published at Elkton, Ky. The subject is a son of Mr. W. C. Grider, well known in Columbia, and who is soon to become a resident of Montpelier, this county:

"On last Sunday night Rev. R. B. Grider closed a four years' faithful service with the Methodist church in Cadiz, and will be sent to another field of labor by the Louisville Conference now in session at Russellville.

"The church here never had a more popular pastor and one who was more successful in his labors for the betterment of the congregation and the spiritual welfare of the community. With a true conception of a pastor's duty, he has always kept himself in touch with the people, and the man of the world as well as the true Christian has always realized that in him he had a true friend, and none ever asked his advice and assistance who did not get it. There is now in Cadiz and surrounding community a strong spirit of Christian union and brotherhood, and no one has contributed more to this one thing than R. B. Grider. He is a Methodist in every sense of the word and is devoted to his church, yet his labors have been for the betterment of the world and the cause of the Christian religion. The people of Cadiz, irrespective of church affiliation, love and admire him, and if his return to this place were left to the people of the town, we are sure that not a single person in the entire community but would ask for his return. But the laws of the church make this impossible, as four years is the limit that one pastor can serve one charge without change.

"As a monument to his effort during the four years he has served the people of this place, one of the most attractive houses of worship to be found in any town of the size in the State now adorns the site of the Methodist church in this city, and a church alive and thoroughly awake is left to greet whoever may be sent to this field to succeed him. Wherever he may be sent by the Conference, the best wishes of the entire town will go with him and his excellent wife for their unbounded happiness and success, and the prayers of the Christian people of the entire town and community are that the Spirit of God may continue to bless and guide them."

Tribute of Respect.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by Columbia Chapter, No. 7, Friday evening, October 7, 1910:

Information having reached Columbia Chapter, No. 7, Royal Arch Masons, of the death of Companion John H. Smith, a member of said Chapter, who departed this life on Oct. 5, 1910, the end coming at his late home, Font Hill, Russell county, Ky., therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Companion Smith this Chapter lost a faithful member, and his death we, as a body of Masons, deeply deplore.

2d That we will cherish his memory, trusting that he has been received in that celestial home, where Chapters, as men, do not meet, but where there is one grand aggregation of redeemed souls.

3d That we tender our profoundest sympathy to his devoted companion and loving children, and commend them to the Giver of all that is Good, who, if they will look unto, will heal their broken hearts.

4th That these resolutions be recorded in the Chapter Book of record; published in the County paper and a copy sent to the widow of the deceased.

G. T. Flowers,
J. E. Murrell,

W. B. Taylor, of Lagrange, Ky., will begin a revival meeting at Mt. Pleasant four miles north of Columbia, on Monday night the 17th of this month. The meeting will continue two weeks or longer. Bro. Taylor is a splendid preacher and the Mt. Pleasant people may consider themselves fortunate in securing his services.

Mr. John Sexton, a former resident of Adair county, but now of Sherman, Texas, was recently married to Miss Dora Brockman. The groom is a prosperous business man and has been connected with the Frisco Railway Company for many years. The bride is a charming young woman who has many friends.

Communion services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday week, the fourth Sunday. The membership is expected to be present.

R. O. Cabbell will open a class in vocal music at Cane Valley on Monday night after the 3rd Sunday.

Circuit court will open at Jamestown next Monday. A representative of this paper will be in attendance and would be glad to meet all friends of the publication.

Jamestown.

Miss Josephine Dockery has returned from Glasgow, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter Morris.

Mr. John H. Smith, of Font Hill died this morning. Mr. Smith has been in declining health for some time. He is a son-in-law of Mrs. Mary Dockery, of this place, and brother of Mr. O. D. Smith.

Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Crisp dined at Judge Hill's a few days ago. Mrs. Hill is an amiable pleasant lady. The parties are all related or connected through marriage.

Bro. Pangburn, who has been the Methodist pastor here for the last year, has been sent to Gradyville. We will miss him and his aimable christian wife.

A few days ago there dined at Dr. Flanagan's, two grandmothers, the young mother, a niece of Mrs. Flanagan and a little babe, a great niece; and one of the ladies, a great grandmother to little baby Faulkenburg.

Our school here seems to be progressing nicely under the leadership of Mr. L. O. Phelps, though a few more lectures are needed, both in the school rooms and at home. For some of the boys seem to be retrograding in their manners instead of advancing. Boys, look aloft and advance.

Messrs Stone and Meadows seem to be busy. I presume they are getting ready for Circuit Court.

Mr. Meadows, also Mr. Otho Wells are improving their homes with new coats of paint etc.

We are having an interesting prayer meeting. Mr. J. H. Stone conducting. The Misses Chamberlain did not get off. If it keeps on raining they can go down to Nashville in a boat, but probably the lovely blonds would enjoy more a canoe ride with their gallant escorts, sailing swiftly along with music and song.

Attend the big lot sale in Columbia Wednesday, October 19th and buy a lot on either of the following streets: Hindman Avenue, Wolford Street; Bramlett Avenue, Page Street; Alexander Avenue, Caldwell Street. Each man, woman or child who attends this sale will be given a ticket to the drawing of a lot, free of charge. See big "ad" on back page of this paper.

Mr. J. B. Barbee's sale of Jersey heifers did not prove a success last Wednesday. There were quite a number of buyers here, but their bidding was too low. Three heifers were knocked off, the bids rejected, and the public sale stopped. After the sale was closed Mr. Barbee sold several privately at fair prices. He has about forty yet on hand, thoroughbred stock, a fine time for persons to secure extra good milkers.

I have a set of rubber tire buggy wheels which I will sell at cost. S. F. Eubank.

It is reported here that some farmers in this county have used parish green on their cabbage to kill worms. They have taken a great risk. Parish green is a deadly poison and should not be sprinkled on any vegetable that grows upon the top of the ground. In springing cabbage there is danger of getting enough on one head to kill a whole family.

Nice line John B. Stetson hats at F. L. Wilson's, Russell Springs, Ky. 49-3t

Brack Massie and J. W. Sublett sold that part of the W. R. Williams' farm, on Green river, 70 acres, formerly owned by W. G. McKinley, to L. A. Neat for $2,300. Mr. Neat sold the farm upon which he is living, to J. S. Breeding. There are fifty acres in the boundary.

Remember the big lot sale at Columbia, Wednesday, Oct. 19th.

Mr. W. T. Dohoney is having a large two-story residence erected, and he hopes to get in it before cold weather. Messrs. W. T. McFarland and H. C. Feeze have the contract, and they are working several hands.

Emma, a twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barlett Hood, died last Wednesday night. She was a victim of typhoid fever and was sick several weeks. The interment was Thursday afternoon, a great many friends attending.

Rev. W. A. Grant, a native of this county, was sent by the last Conference to Hodgenville and Buffalo.

I will furnish all customers who buy fertilizer of me coal oil at 11 cents, actual cost. 49-3t C. E. Young.

With us Another Year.

It was very gratifying to the people of Columbia, of all denominations, when the news reached here that Rev. T. L. Hulse and Rev. B. M. Currie had been returned by Conference to this work. They are both zealous workers in the Master's cause, and very much liked by every body, and it would have been a source of general regret had they been removed.

Rev. R. L. Talley, who has been the Evangelist for Columbia district for two years, was sent to Monticello and will be the pastor of the Church of that city for at least this Conference year. He did a grand work for this district, and we take great pleasure in commending him and his family to the people of Wayne county. They will leave some time this week.

Death of J. H. Smith.

After an illness of several months, Mr. John H. Smith, who resided at Font Hill, Russell county, died Wednesday morning of last week. His death was not unexpected, as he had been on the decline for three or four months.

He was a general merchant at Font Hill and was interested in several other stores in Russell county. He leaves a wife and several children and a host of friends. The deceased was a Master Mason and was also a member of Columbia Chapter Royal Arch Masons, No. 7. He was about forty years old and was one of the best known men in Russell county. The interment was near Font Hill Thursday, friends of the entire neighborhood attending. He will be greatly missed from the community where he so long did business, as he was very accommodating to those who possessed but little of this world's goods. Russell county is in sympathy with the surviving wife and children.

Come to the lot sale Oct. 19th, and you may receive the lucky ticket to either draw the free lot or the $10 or $20 in gold.
